12 Principles of Animation Project Rubric

	4	3	2	1	Comments
Completeness and Quality	Assignment done correctly; student shows competence in the skill assigned	Minor mistakes, but the student has shown that they understand the basics of the assignment.	Assignment is lacking fluidity and appropriate details	Student rushed assignment and missed several key areas of the assignment
Creativity	Originality of thought; shows imagination.	Shows imagination but may lack some cohesiveness.	Original but incomplete thought, hurried work, or lack of cohesiveness.	The work uses other people's ideas. There is little evidence of new thought, inventiveness or imagination.
Following Project Guidelines	Followed all guidelines setup by the Instructor.	Followed most of the guidelines set up by the Instructor.	Followed some of the guidelines set up by the Instructor.	Did not follow any guidelines setup by the Instructor.
Technical	All animation types are used correctly	Most animation types used correctly; may have a broken tween and/or incongruous frame-by-frame sequence	Some animation types used correctly; but evidence of broken tweens and/or incongruous frame-by-frame	Did not use any animation types correctly; broken tweens and/or incongruous frame-by-frame sequences	